Extract of a letter from Lieut. Pike, to Governor Harrison
Dated 28th June 1806

I have observed, by a Letter and Deposition of Capt. Nicolas Bispele, that Mr. J. Harrison wrote you a Letter, complaining of me; and requesting that I not be suffered to [illegible] (in consequence of Capt. Bispele) by Setting as Hunter from Fort in his absence.

His circumstances is fully explained by Capt. Nicolas Bispele's Deposition, and I should never have conceived his Letter worthy any further notice. But allow me to say, that, the Letters of your Wife or that Letter were dictated, or Governed by Feelings; and more deeply — as they came from a Character, whom I had always been induced (as well from duty as inclination) to respect and esteem — Now, Sir, "he ought to have looked to Parkinson for, that he "to have made use of the Arms of the United States; "which were put under his direction for different purposes; "to dispossess the person who has obtained a legal protection." It would be difficult to shew, wherein any passage of J. Harrison's Letter, (even admitting it strictly true) would justify the foregoing conclusion, of my having taken possession by force of Arms. And, when we refer to Capt. Bispele's deposition, we shall perceive, that I obtained a peaceable and legal possession of property, which I had been some years illegally deprived of. It is unnecessary for me to attempt to be the panegyrist of Capt. Bispele's character; but I presume that he might com for one minute down to his having acted with as much propriety as his office; and, that the insinuations of Mr. J. Harrison, were as unfounded & groundless as many others raised by the Seconds who reside in the vicinity of Mafeo. —

— As the Defence mentioned Documents were handed to my Counsel, I should be happy if Governor Harrison ~~fait Lenvoi~~ of Liberty to Favor me with a Line, expressing his satisfaction of the foregoing explanation.
